created to assist the students of Camosun College to obtain bursaries, grants and awards to assist with the funding of their post-secondary education. The Foundation raises and manages funds for life-changing education.

1. Significant accounting policies:

The financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not For Profit Organizations in Part III of the CPA Canada Handbook

(a) Fund accounting:

The Foundation receives support from various donors and allows for restrictions on the use of the donations. These are recorded in the following restricted funds:

(i) The Specific Purpose Fund includes donations for which the donor has stipulated specific uses such as bursaries, scholarships and equipment acquisitions and unrestricted donations which have been internally restricted.

(ii) The Endowment Investment Income Fund includes investment income, defined as interest and dividends, earned by the Endowment Fund, related portfolio management fees and also recorded in the Endowment Investment Income Fund and are used for general includes distributions received from endowments held at other foundations where the Income Fund balance has been internally restricted by the Board of Directors (2016 - $746,010, 2015 - $692,911).

(iii) The Endowment Fund includes donations for which the Foundation and/or the donor have specified that the principal is to be held intact in perpetuity. Also included is the cash surrender value of life insurance policies owned by the Foundation.

(iv) The BC Regional Innovation Chair Endowment Fund ("BCRIC") was established with a capital contribution to Camosun College of $1,250,000 by the Leading Edge Endowment Fund ("LEEF") in December 2007. Camosun College designated the Foundation as the trustee for BCRIC. The Foundation agreed to raise funds to match the $1,250,000 and made an initial contribution of $300,000 toward the needed $1.25M and committed to raise the balance of $950,000 at a rate of $190,000 a year for five years, ending in November 2012. As fundraising efforts had not been successful by the date of the first annual meeting, the Foundation advanced $100,000 to BCRIC with the intent that, as additional funds were raised, the Foundation's advance would be repaid. Fund raising conditions since 2008 have been such that the Foundation has not been able to raise the needed funds.

The principal has been invested and is to be held in perpetuity. The net investment income is used to support the BC Regional Innovation Chair in Sport Technology at Camosun College.

1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(b) Investments:

Investments are recorded at fair value. Transaction costs are charged to the statement of operations as incurred.

The change in the difference between the fair value and book value of investments at the beginning and end of each year is recorded in the statement of operations.

The fair value of fixed income securities and equities is determined by the closing bid price for these securities on the last trading date of the year.

Short-term notes, treasury bills, and term deposits maturing within a year are stated at cost.

(c) Investment transactions and income recognition:

Investment transactions are accounted for as of the trade date. Dividend and interest income are recorded on the accrual basis, with dividends received as of the dividend date. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions and unrealized gains or losses of investments are calculated on a weighted-average cost basis.

(d) Revenue recognition:

The Foundation follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions. Restricted the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Contributions for endowments are recognized as revenue in the Endowment Fund.

(e) Contributions:

Gifts in kind designated for Camosun College are recorded at their estimated fair market value as determined by independent appraisers on date of receipt, except for contributions of art and collectibles which are recorded at nominal values of $1 until realization of cash proceeds from the sale of such items. Contributed materials and services, including accounting and statements.

6. Financial Instruments:

(a) Foreign exchange risk:

The Foundation holds investments in Canadian dollar denominated financial instruments which are subject to foreign exchange risk.

(b) Liquidity risk:

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Foundation cannot meet a demand for cash or fund its obligations as they come due. A key liquidity requirement is grant commitments. Liquidity risk in an active market and can be readily liquidated. The Foundation aims to retain sufficient cash and liquid, therefore the Foundation's liquidity risk is considered minimal.

(c) Credit risk:

Credit risk is the risk that a third party to a financial instrument might fail to meet its obligations. The Foundation's credit risk is limited to the cash surrender value of life insurance policies, the Foundation's credit risk is limited to the carrying value on the statement of financial position.

The Foundation manages the risk associated with the concentration of credit risk through its policy of investing in instruments issued by high credit quality financial institutions, governments and corporations.

(d) Market risk:

Market price risk is the risk that the value of an instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices. Market prices, whether those changes are caused by factors specific to an individual investment, its issuer or all factors affecting all instruments traded in the market. As all of the Foundation's marketable securities are carried at fair value with fair value changes recognized in the statement of operations and changes in fund balances, an analysis of market risk is provided in the Foundation's Investment Policy which provides for instruments traded on various markets across various industries.
